MEMORANDUM

Code: AA-2012-05

Date: March 27, 2012

To: CSU Vice Presidents for Student Affairs

From:
Eric G. Forbes

It is the policy of the California State University to delineate minimum qualifications for student office holders within major student government offices and those serving as minor representative officers or systemwide committee appointees. Student office holders have an obligation to demonstrate academic involvement, achievement, and progress given their representative majority class, and other long-range policy-making responsibilities and influence.

minor representative officers and systemwide committee appointees. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Mr. Ray Murillo, Associate Director, Student Programs, Academic Affairs, Student Academic Support, at (562) 951-4707 or rmurillo@calstate.edu or Dr. Sabrina Sanders, Assistant Director, Student Programs, Academic Affairs, Student Academic Support, at (562) 951-4602 or csanders@calstate.edu.

All student representatives, candidates and incumbents for major and minor office positions must be matriculated at a CSU campus maintaining a minimum on-campus 2.0 term grade point provision. This requirement applies to the major student government offices defined below, minor systemwide committees.

These requirements are minimum qualifications. The campus president or designee is authorized to assess the minimum qualifications and establish additional requirements as determined by the campus.

MAJOR STUDENT GOVERNMENT OFFICES

Major student offices include students who are executive officers or board members on student government; students who serve on campus auxiliary organizations (student union, recreation centers, foundations and commercial enterprises); and students who are officers or board government offices.

A. Incumbent Unit Load

Undergraduate students must earn 6 semester (9 quarter) units of credit per term while holding office. Graduate and credential students must earn 2 semester (4 quarter) units of credit per term while holding office.

Students enrolled at quarter campuses must attend a minimum of two quarters during the academic year to maintain eligibility. However, year-round quarter campuses may require student office holders to be enrolled a minimum of three quarters during the calendar year to maintain eligibility.

Undergraduate students are allowed to earn a maximum of 150 semester (225 quarter) units or 125 percent of the units required for a specific baccalaureate degree objective, whichever is greater. Graduate and credential students are allowed to earn a maximum of 50 semester (75 quarter) units or 167 percent of the units required for the graduate or credential objective, whichever is greater. Students holding more than this number of units will no longer be eligible for major student government office.

MINOR REPRESENTATIVE OFFICERS

Students and members of campus sponsored student clubs and organizations shall be defined as minor representative student officers. The campus president or designee retains the authority to define additional minor representative officers as appropriate.

Candidate Requirements

Requirements shall be determined by the campus president or designee.
